

CALL FOR AUDITION

FOR PERFORMERS FOR MARINA ABRAMOVIC'S RETROSPECTIVE EXHIBITION IN MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART
BELGRADE 2019/2020

The Museum of Contemporary Art is looking for performers to participate in Marina Abramovic performances, which will take place as part of her retrospective exhibition "The Cleaner", from September 21st 2019 - January 20th 2020 at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Belgrade.

The Performers will be re-performing historical works by the artist, as well as works created with former partner Ulay. Male and female artists from all performative disciplines are welcome. People with extensive experience in dance, theatre and performance are especially encouraged to apply. These performances require a great deal of stamina and commitment. All applicants must be at least 21 years of age. Performers will have to be available for the duration of the exhibition, as well as an additional three weeks leading up to the opening.

Auditions will be held from 29th of June to the 1st of July 2019 in Belgrade. All those selected to participate in the project will be required to attend a 6 days training workshop with Marina Abramovic's collaborator Lynsey Peisinger ahead of the opening of the exhibition. More information about the workshop "Cleaning the House" is available here. All participants will need to sign a non-disclosure agreement and a photography and video consent form that allows the use of one's image without any territorial and time constraints.

Please send a brief letter of motivation, CV, portrait, full-length body figure photo, and a link to one of your representative work to performer@msub.org.rs with the subject line "Performer_name and last name".
